PERU, CRADLE OF THE INCA'S CIVILIZATION

PERU FAST FACTS

POPULATION

31'151,643 inhabitants. Lima, the capital, has 9'752,000

LANGUAGE

Spanish is the official language, spoken by 80% of the population. Quechua is the main language in the highlands; the people living around Lake Titicaca speak Aymara. The indigenous people living in the Amazon area speak many different dialects.

CLIMATE & CLOTHING

In the Coast, December to April is the warmest, sunniest months and it seldom rains. The wettest months are June to August. Lightweight clothes are needed from October to May.

In the highlands, the driest months are June to October. Day temperatures range from the high 60°F/15°C to the low 70°F/20°C, and in the 40°F/4°C and 50°F/10°C at night. Sweater, jacket and long slacks are necessary. Rainwear is needed from December to March since it is rainy season in the highlands.

In the Amazon Basin, the average temperature is 80°C/27°C. Rainfall is most intense from June to November. Clothing requirements are the same all year: light, tropical clothes, long pants and long sleeved shirts for jungle outings.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CODES

Peru: 51, Lima 1, Cusco 84, Arequipa 54, Puno 51, Ica 56, Trujillo 44, Chiclayo 74, Iquitos 65, Puerto Maldonado 84

ELECTRIC CURRENT

220 volts, 60 cycles. Major hotels have 110-volt outlets

WATER

Although tap water is safe and potable, we suggest bottled water

SHOTS

Please note that yellow fever shot is a recommendation when traveling to Peruvian jungle (Puerto Maldonado or Iquitos) and all people going from Peru to Brazil, Colombia and Venezuela.

TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS

Valid passport. Visas are required for citizens of certain countries.

3 days / 2 nights

DAY 01 LIMA / TRUJILLO

Upon arrival in Trujillo, meet and transfer to selected hotel. Overnight

DAY 02 TRUJILLO

Breakfast

Panoramic visit of the city center surrounded by colonial mansions. We will visit the main square and two colonial mansions: La Casa Urquiaga (now Banco de la Reserva, closed on Saturdays and Sundays) and La Casa de La Emancipación (closed on Saturdays and Sundays). Also we will visit Archeology, Anthropology and History Museum of the National University of Trujillo (closed on Sundays), which exhibits ceramic objects, jewelry, clothing, and feather mosaic. Continue to visit the Huaca del Sol and Huaca de la Luna. Huaca del Sol functioned as the political-administrative center, and Huaca de la Luna as the ceremonial center.

Lunch at Huanchaco, one of the most popular beaches along the coast of Peru for surfers. Here you will see the traditional rafts called the "caballitos de totora" (little horses of totora reeds), used by the fishermen in the north coast of Peru since pre-Columbian times, still navigate these waters.

In the afternoon we will visit Chan Chan: this pre-Hispanic urban center represents the largest mud city in pre-Hispanic America. In 1986, it was declared a World Heritage Site by the UNESCO. Return to selected hotel. Overnight

DAY 03 TRUJILLO / CHICLAYO / LIMA

Breakfast

Early departure by private car headed to Chiclayo. On route, stop over at El Brujo Archeological Complex which is formed by the three following constructions: Huaca Prieta, Huaca Cao and Huaca Cortada.

On arrival in Chiclayo, we will visit the Museum of Sican or House of the Moon. It is a museum that exhibits artifacts found in the site digs of Batán Grande and demonstrates how they were used or fabricated. The rooms represent excavated tombs and exhibit the burial paraphernalia discovered there. The museum also offers detailed information on the excavation process and site preservation, as well as the chronology, development, trade networks, economic activities, burial patterns, and cosmology of the Sican or Lambayeque cultures.

Lunch at a local restaurant before going to the Royal Tombs of Sipan National Museum (closed on Mondays): here we will find archeological objects of gold, silver, and copper object found in the tomb of the Lord of Sipan. Among the many important pieces are earrings, ceremonial scepters, medallions, a heavy circular gold ingot, nose rings, gold necklaces in the shape of peanuts, a gold chin and cheek mask, gold back flap, and gold disks worn around the neck.

AREQUIPA
Code 22498
3 days / 2 nights

DAY 01 AREQUIPA

Upon arrival in Arequipa airport, transfer to selected hotel.
 Afternoon city tour. The tour starts with the visit to the Santa Catalina Monastery, a city within the city, founded at the end of XVII century and only opened to the public few years ago. The city tour also includes the Main Plaza or Plaza de Armas, the Cathedral (closed on Sundays), the Jesuit Cloister and the residential areas of Cayma and Yanahuara to end at the “Mirador de Yanahuara” for a superb view of the volcanoes (Private services).
 Overnight

DAY 02 AREQUIPA / COLCA

Breakfast
 Departure for a two days package to Colca Valley (Private services).
 This tour is impressive not just due to the beautiful you can appreciate, but also due to the cultural symbiosis of the ancient Andean cultures and the Catholic religion introduced by the Spanish. In the early morning we'll leave Arequipa and head towards the valley.
 On our way we'll pass Yura, Pampa de Arrieros, Pampa Cañahuas (where we'll find the Vicuna National Reserve of Aguada Blanca), Vizcachani and Tojra (all the year we can see here a variety of migratory birds resting in so called “bofedales”, a sort of peat bog). Entering the Colca canyon we'll arrive at its most important town, Chivay where we'll also have lunch.
 Overnight

DAY 03 COLCA / PUNO

Breakfast
 Early in the morning, we'll drive to the observation point “Cruz del Condor”. While this is not the deepest point of the Canyon, you can appreciate the grandeur of the canyon and with a bit of luck, you might even spot an Andean condor, the largest flying bird in the world, soaring across the high plain.
 Afterwards, transfer to Puno and drop off at your hotel (private vehicle only).
